COACH'S REPORT:

5th grade Red and White team - nothing

6th grade Red and White team - there will be meeting after the practice, to announce what girls are on the red and white teams this year. Please meet in the Cardinal Room, after the practice.

7th grade Red team is practicing and the 7th grade White team has a tournament on October 29th, in Onalaska, WI.

8th grade - there are 13 girls currently, there will be 7 core girls. At one tournament there will be 3 girls going to game. The next tournament, the 3 girls who did not go to the previous tournament will go this tournament. Fair playing time.

7th Grade Tournament - November 12 & 13

Will need all Cardinal Flight parents from all teams help with this 2-day tournament. There are 120 slots open. Starting time for the set up on Friday night will be announced at the November meeting. On Saturday and Sunday, need to be at the schools at 8AM to get this going.

Will be using the Chi-Hi gym, Middle School, Parkview and Hillcrest.
John Shear and Darrin Hazelton will help at Chi-Hi as tournament directors.
Dick Larscheid and Jim Nibblet will help at the Middle School as tournament directors.
Dave Mayry and Kip Knez will help at Hillcrest as tournament directors.
Parkview still needs helpers.

If a parent is unable to help with a tournament, they should see if they can get a family member to take their place, otherwise, they will be access a $100 fee for not helping.

When running the concession stand or the food stand, an adult should be handling the moneybox, not a child.

UNIFORMS:

Mary Schnobrick showed a sample of the new uniforms. Need to have all the 5th grade and 7th grade and new girls see Mary before leaving today, so she can have them try on uniform for sizing purposes.

New uniforms will have red and white for colors and will be interchangeable.

If there are any girls that have uniforms that do not fit from last year, see Mary about ordering a new uniform. A motion was made that if any girl has an uniform that does not fit, to order a new one, for a total cost not to exceed $55, by Diana Barton and second by John Shear.

CO-VICE PRESIDENT:

Talk about having any volunteers for Co-Vice President for the 2006-2007 year. Kip Knez volunteered.

Outgoing co-presidents are Dick Larscheid and Jim Nibblett.

Brick Stephens and Gary Shilts are the incoming co-presidents.

A motion to adjourn was made by Gary Shilts and second by all members present, at 3:45PM.
