NEW BUSINESS:

7th grade Championship tournament will be held on November 12th & 13th at the Middle School, High School, Parkview and Hillcrest.

Sara Modl, the concession coordinator talked about setting up on Friday, November 11th, starting at 6PM. Parkview, Middle School and the High School will have full concessions. Hillcrest will have limited amount of concessions. Need everyone to help out. There are a total of 120 shifts for the tournament. If you cannot help out, check to see if a family member could take your place. If that does not work, then you could pay a $100 fee for each child in Cardinal Flight. The time frame for the shift is 4 hours. Everyone needs to bring a dozen of cookies, bars, etc., individually wrapped.

Hours worked:

You will need to work 4 hours at the Championship tournament, 4 hours at your child tournament and 4 hours at another tournament. For a total of 12 hours.

Tournament Information on which teams help each other:

1. 6th Grade Red - December 17th, 8th grade red team helps
2. 6th Grade White - February 4th, 6th grade red and 8th white team helps
3. 7th Grade White - February 18th, 7th grade red and 7th white team helps
4. 5th Grade Red & White - March 4th, 5th grade red and white teams helps

Looking for an individual to work with Sara Modl to become the concession coordinator for the 2006-2007 Cardinal Flight year. Is anyone interested?

UNIFORMS:

The 5th & 7th grade jerseys were given out. Girls like them. They look professional. Some of the Cardinal Flight clothing has come in. Mary will be giving it out today.

Note that the weekend of December 25 and January 1st, there will not be open gym on these two Sunday's due to Christmas vacation.

Also, on February 19th and February 26th, there will not be open gym, due the fact the gym is being used.

Motion to adjourn was made by Sara Modl and second by Jamie Knowlton, at 3:47PM.
